

Saunterings

Dr. and Mrs. Theodore Br. e Beatty announce the engagement of their daughter, Virginia Pos. Beatty, to John Soley Selfridge of San Francisco.

The wedding will take place at the Congrega-tional church on the evening of September 12th, and will be one of the largest society events of the early autumn. The Rev. Elmer J. Goshen will perform the ceremony and the bride will be attended by Mrs. R. H. Parker as matron of honor, Miss Aileen McMillan will be maid of honor, and the bridesmaids will be Miss Margaret Walker, Miss Margaret McClure, Miss Margaret Dunn, Miss Edith Godbe and Miss Norinne Thompson. Samuel Woodworth of Boston will be best man for Mr. Selfridge and little Virginia Tyng will be the ring-bearer.

Miss Beatty, who is one of the brightest girls in society here, has a charm and vivacity which have made her very popular, and her host of friends will regret that she will live in the east, following her marriage. The young people will make their home in Schenectady, N. Y. Mr. Selfridge is a scion of one of the oldest and most prominent families in San Francisco and a graduate of Yale.

As is usual in the rare days of June the week has been one of many weddings and more are scheduled for the immediate future. The month of roses has always been the most popular one in the year for those in love's young dream, and this year there seem to be an unusual number of weddings.

The local dailies are filled with many amusing features of late. With Mutt and Jeff in the Tribune and the work of the artist on the Sunday society page of the Herald-Republican there is plenty of fun for everybody.

A very beautiful wedding was that of Miss Isabel Shiffer and George A. Critchlow, which took place at the First Presbyterian church on Tuesday evening, the Rev. H. W. Rehder officiating. With June blossoms, roses, ferns and palms artistically arranged throughout the edifice and massed at the altar, the scene was strikingly effective. The dainty little bride never looked prettier and the church was filled with a fashionable throng including many belles in the younger set whose beauty added to the charm of the occasion.

The bride was attended by Mrs. Harry S. Knight as matron of honor; little Betty Knight preceded the bridal party as flower girl; Francis Critchlow was best man for Mr. Critchlow, and the ushers were William Caine, Carroll Bintz, Maurice Critchlow and Russell Richards. Following the ceremony a reception was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Johnson, attended only by intimate friends and relatives. Upon their return from their honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Critchlow will make their home here.

Miss Lela Miles Moore and Frank A. Wardlaw, Jr., were married at the St. Paul's church on Tuesday afternoon by the Rev. Ward Winter Reese. The wedding was a quiet event, attended only by close friends and relatives. Mrs. W. B. Searles was matron of honor, Miss Leona Wilson was bridesmaid and Mr. Arno Withers was best man for Mr. Wardlaw. A supper was given at the Hotel Utah following the ceremony.

The wedding of Miss Lila Mae Eaton and Harold Gordon Havenor occurred at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Eaton, on Wednesday evening, Dean Samuel R. Colladay officiating. Mr. Edward F. Bailey attended the bride as matron of honor and Miss Beth Larsen was the bridesmaid. Gordon Williamson was best man for Mr. Havenor. A reception was given later in the evening at which Mr. and Mrs. Eaton were assisted by Mrs. M. Barlow, Mrs. H. Earl Havenor and Miss Jeanette Williamson.

The wedding of Miss Clara Louise Hughes and Frederick W. Hansen took place at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. John W. Hughes, on Wednesday evening. Miss Clara Hansen was relatives and intimate friends. In the evening a reception was given at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Benson will live in Trenton.

With Miss Margaret McIntyre as the motif, Miss Marion McIntyre and Miss Margaret McMillan gave a tea at the McIntyre home on Tuesday afternoon which was one of the prettiest afternoon affairs of a busy week socially.

The hostesses were assisted by Mrs. W. H.

Miss Virginia Beatty, whose engagement to John Soley Selfridge is announced maid of honor and Miss Ruth Gleanfield was bridesmaid. Milton Seely was best man for Mr. Hansen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. P. A. Simpkin, and following a reception was given at the home of Mrs. William Ames.

Miss Burdette Clawson and E. Taft Benson of Ogden were married at noon in the Temple on Thursday. Later a luncheon was given at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Carl R. Williams, the personnel including the bridal party, McIntyre, Mrs. B. A. McMillan and Mrs. Fred C. Dern, and a dozen of the girls of the younger set.

A most elaborate affair was the tea given by Mrs. Edwin F. Holmes and Mrs. J. T. Harris at the Amella Palace on Friday afternoon in honor of Mrs. John Vernon White of Detroit and Mrs. Harold B. Lamb.

A conversation over the telephone which was